PAY REVISION OF IDPL EMPLOYEES
DHARMRAJ SINGH PATEL

Will the Minister of CHEMICALS AND FERTILIZERS be pleased to state:

(a): the number of times pay of IDPL employees has been revised during the last eight years;

(b) whether neither the pay has been revised nor the instalments of Central Dearness Allowance and the Industrial Dearness Allowance paid to them; (c) whether irregularities have been committed in the payment of Central Dearness Allowance and Industrial Dearness Allowance to IDPL employees;

(d) if so, the details thereof and action taken thereon; and

(e) if not, the reasons for not implementing pay revision C.D.A. and I.D.A. in case of all the employees?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CHEMICALS AND FERTILIZERS (SHRI RAMESH BAIS)

(a): There has been no revision of pay of the employees of IDPL during the last 8 years.

(b) to (e): The employees are being paid Central Dearness Allowance or the Industrial Dearness Allowance, as per Government guidelines. Both sets of employees have approached the Court of Law for redressal of their grievances on revision of pay etc.
